Ohio Attorney General’s Heroin Unit will present information on “Opioid Crisis” to Mahoning County Children Services Case Workers Today

[YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO] Alisha Nelson, Community Outreach Specialist from the Office of the Ohio Attorney General Mike DeWine’s Heroin Unit will be at Mahoning County Children Services today to discuss the Opioid Crisis in Ohio.

Date: Tuesday, August 15, 2017
Time: 1:30 pm-2:30 pm
Location: Mahoning County Children Services
222 West Federal Street, 4th Floor
Youngstown, Ohio 44503

The Opioid Epidemic has had a significant impact on children services locally and across the state. “Children are the invisible victims of the crisis in our state. The crisis is creating a demand for our services across almost all departments at Mahoning County Children Services which is why we invited a representative from the Ohio Attorney General’s Heroin Unit to share information about the crisis with our caseworkers” states Jennifer T. Kollar, Public Information Officer, Mahoning County Children Services.
